Ready to make the most of your time in Seattle?

Ask yourself: do you really want to go to the same touristy places as everyone else? Or would you rather return home with some unique stories to tell and some awesome pictures to brag about?

Seattle has plenty to see and do, but if you only have a few days here, you need a plan.

One Weird Globe guides are your step-by-step key to enjoying the offbeat side of a city or area. Get off the beaten path and head to some awesome places most tourists have never heard of.

A few highlights in this three-day itinerary:

A fun museum covering the past, present, and future of computers

The market where they throw fish, and sell just about everything else

The place to play pinball all day

The troll under the bridge in Seattle's weirdest neighborhood
